

constitutional amendment bill were discussed to and the bill was sent to conference.

Mr. Miller (Rep., O.), chairman of election committee No. 1, then called on the contested election of William Aldrich vs. Thomas S. Poyman, from the Fourth Alabama district.

Mr. Poyman, the sitting member, is a Democrat, and Mr. Aldrich, the challenger, is a Republican. The majority of the committee reported in favor of Mr. Poyman. Mr. Aldrich, who was opposed to the bill, made a long and elaborate argument in favor of sustaining the majority report, and deplored the fact that a partisan body called upon to pass upon an election case, should in this particular instance have been so much more than a partisan body.

Mr. Fox (Dem., Miss.) presented the case of the election, which reported that Mr. Poyman was entitled to retain his seat. He dwelt upon the fact that Aldrich was not the regular nominee of the Republican party, and was opposed on the stand by leading Republicans and Populists, and that any assumption that he commanded the full strength of the Republicans and Populists of the district was unwarranted.

While there was a time, said Mr. Fox, when the name of Lincoln and Grant, together with a baseless fear that the double-breasted Republican might again impress them into slavery, kept a negro solid, that time had gone. Republicans no longer had no right to assume that any negro was a Republican because his skin was black. He contended the claim that a conspiracy existed, and maintained that a revolution of the future, in accordance with the tenets of the party, would still give Poyman a plurality of votes.

Mr. Settle (Dem., Ky.) began an argument in support of Poyman, but before completing it he yielded to a motion to adjourn. It is expected that a vote will be reached tomorrow.

LATTIMER MASSACRE TRIAL

JUDGE WOODWARD RECEIVED AN ANONYMOUS LETTER.

Pottenger's Testimony—"I Bet I Drop Six of Them When I Get Over There," Said a Deputy.

Willamette, Pa., Feb. 8.—Before the trial of Sheriff Mead and his deputies was resumed today, Judge Woodward stated that he had received an anonymous letter, stating that if he did not do certain things something would happen, and a threat was made.

The judge said, "The man who wrote this letter probably knows me. I have said, 'I want to tell you that I am a Republican and a coward, and that no such dishonorable means will in any way affect my judgment."

Judge Woodward ruled out certain evidence given yesterday by John Costello, a witness for the prosecution, and which had been objected to by the defense.

During the course of Costello's testimony he had said to Deputy Hen, "I bet I drop six of them when I get over there."

Costello said he replied angrily, "I bet I drop six of them when I get over there."

THREAT TO OUR SUGAR

Hawaii Can Raise Enough to Supply the Whole Country.

PETTIGREW'S ARGUMENTS

IN OPPOSITION TO THE ANNEXATION TREATY.

White Men Cannot Labor in Tropical Climate—Hawaii Does Not Offer Advantages in Event of War—Federal Nominations and Confirmations—Capital Topics.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota was the only speaker on the Hawaiian annexation treaty in the executive session today.

He opposed the treaty, resuming his speech where he had left off a week ago, taking up the line of his argument in connection with the annexation of the Hawaiian islands.

He asserted that the area available of sugar cultivation amounted to fully a half million acres, and said that as the land was very productive there was no doubt that all the sugar necessary to supply the demands of the United States could be produced in Hawaii. He quoted official statistics to the effect that in 11 months of last year there had been 46,000,000 pounds of Hawaiian sugar imported into the United States.

ASIATIC LABOR.

The senator then undertook to show that all the sugar grown on the islands must be produced by Asiatic labor, repeating and elaborating the argument that no colony of the Anglo-Saxon race had ever been successful within the tropics. He replied to Senator Teller on this point, saying that the facts were against the colored senator.

He asserted that the Hawaiian islands would prove no exception to the rule that the white man could not and would not labor in a tropical climate.

He said of the 100,000 people in Hawaii, fewer than 15,000, including the British, were white, and in the straits settlement not 1 per cent of the residents were English. He asserted that if Hawaii there was no European laborer save from the Portuguese engaged in the sugar plantations today.

ALUTIAN ISLANDS.

He took issue with those who contend that the islands are in the track of commerce, saying that they are not in the way to or from any other place in the world. If, he said, we would fortify any outposts in the line of our travel to the ocean, it should be one of the Alutian Islands, which we directly control in the way of commerce between the two hemispheres.

HELPLESS IN WAR.

"Suppose, for instance," he said, "San Francisco should be attacked by the enemy, and we should cable to Honolulu for the fleet, a cable having been supposedly constructed. Many of them would not be able to reach our coast, and if the others should be engaged for a day or two off the coast, their coal supply would be exhausted, and they would be perfectly helpless, capable neither of continuing their journey to San Francisco, or of returning to Honolulu."

"It is absurd," exclaimed the senator, "to talk of defending San Francisco from Hawaii, as it is to talk of defending New York from Ireland, for the distance is about the same."

Senator Pettigrew, at 5 o'clock, announced that he had not concluded his speech, but would continue tomorrow.
